LIQUOR AND GAMING LICENSES

Who Can Hold A Licence

Two types of liquor licences are available to sporting organisations in New South Wales.

A 'club licence' can only be held by a 'registered club' under the Registered Clubs Act 1976.

A 'limited licence' can generally only be held by not-for profit sporting clubs that are considered non-proprietary associations under the Liquor Act 2007.

Club Licence

In relation to preparing a Constitution that satisfies the required criteria, the applicant must show that the rules of the Club meet the requirements specified in section 10(1) of the Registered Clubs Act 1976, and otherwise comply with the requirements of that Act, including, but not limited to:

- the club must be a company within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001;
- the club must be conducted in good faith as a club;
- the club shall be established for social, sporting or athletic purposes, and for the purpose of providing accommodation for its members and guests;
- club membership numbers shall be in accordance with statutorily defined minimum and maximum standards; and
- members of the club cannot derive any profit, benefit or advantage that is not offered equally to all full members;

This template has been prepared for an incorporated association. As a Club Licence requires an organisation to be a company within the meaning of the Corporations Act, this template will not be suitable (as it is a Constitution for an incorporated association) and legal advice should be sought in relation to a Constitution for a company.

There are other factors that may be required to be met. For example, the club must have premises and be the bona fide occupier of these premises for the purpose of the club. These premises must be maintained by way of funds of the club.

These criterion are heavily reliant on satisfying statutory requirements, and as such specific advice may be required.

Limited Licence

In relation to preparing a Constitution that satisfies the required criteria, the applicant must show that its rules allow it to be considered a non-proprietary association under the Liquor Act 2007, and provide for:

- the organisation to be an incorporated or unincorporated body or association of people;
- the organisation to apply any profits (if any) or other income to the promotion of its objectives; and
- the organisation to be prohibited from paying dividends, or distributing profits or income to its shareholders, members, local council or public authorities.

This template meets these requirements.

There are other factors that may be required to be met, for example:

- the granting of the licence must not result in the frequent undue disturbance of the quiet and good order of the neighbourhood of the licensed premises; and
- if licensing authority is of the opinion that the sale or supply of liquor under a limited licence would more appropriately be provided under another kind of licence, a limited licence will be refused
